

This Week in Park City July, 2008

JULY ART SHOWS

Things We Worship
Ginger Bowen

July 4-6 • Gallery MAR Grand Opening Festivities

Discover Park City's freshest art gallery at 580 Main St. Artist demonstrations, new work by Gallery MAR artists and gifts in the gallery all week long. Featured artists: Brad Stroman, Oil painter; Fran Nicholson, Sculptor. Gallery MAR, 580 Main St. 649-8160 or visit www.GalleryMar.com

July 5-29 • Moving Pictures

"Moving Pictures" is an exhibition of recent artwork by Julie Nester Gallery's 35 national artists showcased in their new 3200 square feet of exhibition space. Join them for the opening celebration and tour their new gallery on July 5, 5:30-8pm. Julie Nester Gallery, 1280 Iron Horse Drive, Park City. 649-7855

Through July 11 • "Portraits of Malawi"

Olivia "Holly" Mae Pendergast, has just returned from Malawi, Africa where she painted a new body of work entitled, "Portraits of Malawi." While in Malawi, Pendergast was struck by their overwhelming poverty (in stark contrast to the starving artist life she thought she was

"C394" Mixed media on Steel. Jeff Fontaine